A collection of eight speech bubbles, each containing a different reason. The bubbles are arranged in a loose, non-linear fashion. The text inside the bubbles is as follows:

- Lack of $$$
- Nothing!
- Communication prior to the game start
- Team balance and friction
- Rules clarity
- War table had limited impact on game
- War map was confusing for aliens
- Not long enough!

Black market auction for science resources

This would be cool with more people

Definitely want to play again, it is a good day and has interesting stories even with negative play experience

Great work! Lots of fun!

Well run and organised

Great fun!

I would definitely play again

Thanks

Well run, I really enjoyed it!

Fun game!

Could do with a tweak of science to make sure teams actually see benefit during the game.

Great work, thanks guys!

Thanks guys, it was fun,
looking forward to the next one.

The communication before the game can be improved, would have been easier to communicate with our team with the information available prior to the week of the game
